Rice University is committed to equal opportunity in education and employment. It is the policy of Rice University to attract qualified individuals of diverse backgrounds to its faculty, staff, and student body. Accordingly, Rice University does not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, age, disability, or veteran status in its admissions, its educational programs, or employment of faculty or staff. In employment, the university seeks to recruit, hire, and advance women, members of underrepresented minority groups, individuals with disabilities, Vietnam-era veterans, special disabled veterans, recently separated veterans, and other protected veterans (as defined by law).

Rice University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033-4097; 404-679-4501) to award bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees.
