NOTE: This catalog represents the most accurate information available at the time of publication. The university reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to correct or otherwise change any information without notice. The information contained in this publication is not intended to, and does not, confer any contractual rights on any individual. With respect to course offerings, the departments have attempted to anticipate which courses will be offered and by whom and when such courses will be taught. However, course offerings may be affected by changes in faculty, student demand, and funding. Although efforts have been made to indicate these uncertainties, course offerings are subject to change without notice.

Rice University is committed to equal opportunity in education and employment.
It is the policy of Rice University to attract qualified individuals of diverse backgrounds to its faculty, staff, and student body. Accordingly, Rice University does not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, national or ethnic origin, ancestry, age, disability, or veteran status in its admissions, its educational programs, or employment. In employment, the university seeks to recruit, hire, and advance women, members of underrepresented minority groups, individuals with disabilities, and certain classes of military veterans (as defined by law).

Rice University is accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, GA 30033– 4097; 404-679-4501) to award bachelor's, master's, and doctoral degrees.
