NOTE: This catalog represents the most accurate information available at the time of publication. The university reserves the right to correct or otherwise change any such information at its sole discretion. With respect to course offerings, the departments have attempted to anticipate which courses will be offered, and by whom and when such courses will be taught. However, course offerings may be affected by changes in faculty, student demand, and funding. Although efforts have been made to indicate these uncertainties, where appropriate, course offerings are subject to change without notice.

It is the policy of Rice University to attract qualified individuals of diverse backgrounds to its faculty, staff, and student body. Accordingly, Rice University does not discriminate against any individual on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, age, disability, or veteran status in its admissions, its educational programs, or employment of faculty or staff. The university takes affirmative action in employment by recruiting, hiring, and advancing women, members of minority groups, individuals with disabilities, Vietnam-era veterans, and special disabled veterans.
